Jim Howard's Fatal Mistake at

Greenville, 8. C. A special to the Atlanta Constitution vesterday, tells of a fatal shooting affair at Greenville, S. C., in which James Howard, a eigar-maker, and tormer resident of this city, accidentally shot and killed one of his friends. The dispatch says:

A great sensation was caused here toa great sensation was caused acte-inght by the shooting of J. A. C. Levy-manager of the Fisk Balloon Company Levy, in company with James Howard, Walter Howard and N. T. Sherman, three-old friends of his, went but shooting During the afternoon the rain fell heavily. and all began drinking, and were soon in a very lively way. As they came back the guns were exchanged, Soon they took the shells out and started to Hol-combe & Sumner's bar, where they commenced drinking again and pointing their guns of each other. As Jim How and started out of the door Levy pointed his gun at him and said "Stop." in a playful manner, when Howard raised his gun. As he did so the weapon was ac-cilentally discharged, the whole load going into Levy's neck and face. Dr. Rowley was summed, and pronounced the wound desperate. Howard, in whose hands the intal gin was, is a rounger gar-maker of this city, and has made many friends since his recent coming to

All of the parties above named are well known in Asheville with the exception of Levy, the deceased.

NORTH CAROLINA NOTES.

The mayor of Windsor, in Bertie county has been requested to resign at an indig-nation meeting held by the citizens of that place. The people charge him with hav-ing prostituted his office to personal ends and brought shame and disgrace upon the community by his acts.

Inman, Swann & Co., the big cotton firm of New York, have leased a whole floor over Gray's shoestore, at Charlotte and will establish an agency there on September 1st. Mr. E. S. Ehney will be their representative.

A negro man named Haywood Bowen, is in jail at Carflage, Moore county, charged with an attempt to murder his wife while at church. A great sensation was caused among the congregation.

The Charlotte News says. Rev. Sam Jones will not be in Charlotte in October, as has been expected and partially planned for. He may come later in the fall or carly next spring.

HEREAFTER

The State Fruit Fair will be held at Winston-Salem, on Wednesday and Thurswagons. The necessity for this has been caused by our largely increasing trade This morning Governor Powle appointed T. B. Womack, Esq., of Charlian, a director in the Insure Asylum vice br. T. D. Haigh, of Fayetteville, resigned, and br. Geo. S. Kirby, of Wayne, over Dr. Jackson, of Columbus county, resigned. If these appointments are accorded in the experience of the complaints of the control of erpted, all the vacancies on the board justly, too) by some of our will have been filled. There was a suggestion this morning to the effect that Mr. Womack could not accept the appointment until he should resign the office of clerk to the House branch of the State Legislature, which office he now holds. To correct some impressions which are publicly energin, it may be stated that the resignations of Dr. Haigh and Dr. Capeliart were not asked for by the Governor, but that they were sent in volume ready large trade, and prom-This was clearly evidenced in the stand taken by the British Government when goods sold by us guaranteed ares of Orsini in the conspiracy against to be as represented, both in the life of Napoleon III. weights and quality.
